24 Keeping and production of documents

(1) A copy of any permit, authority, order or other document which has been issued, granted, served or given to a person by the director under this Act and, in the case of an order, the prescribed documents which shall be obtained in connection with the serving thereof, as well as any application, correspondence or other document submitted to the director and arising from the administration and application of this Act, shall be stored safely by him for the periods which are fixed in respect thereof by or pursuant to any provision of the Archives Act, 1962 (Act 6 of 1962).
25 Secrecy

(1) No person shall, except for the purpose of the performance of his duties under this Act, or for the purpose of legal proceedings thereunder, or when required to do so by any competent court, excluding a civil court, or under any law, or with the written consent of the Minister, disclose to any other person any information acquired by him in the performance of his duties under this Act, and which relates to the business or affairs of a person.

(2) No person shall, except with the written consent of the Minister, give access to any person other than the director, an officer, or any other person entitled thereto in terms of any law, to any records or registers kept in terms of this Act.
(1) The South African Transport Services shall not be liable—

(a) by reason of its refusal to transport any animal or thing—

(i) whenever it knows, or it may on reasonable grounds be suspected, that such animal or thing is an infectious or contaminated thing;

(ii) if any permit or other document is required by this Act for the transport or removal of such animal or thing, and the consignor is not able or fails to produce that permit or document or any duplicate or copy thereof to it; or

(iii) by reason of a prohibition under this Act of the removal or transport of such animal or thing from the land on which it is kept or is present.
27 Limitation of liability

Except where otherwise provided in this Act, no person, including the State, shall be liable in respect of anything done or omitted in good faith in the exercise of a power or the performance of a duty under, or by virtue of, this Act, or in the rendering of any service in terms of this Act, or in respect of anything which may result therefrom.
This Act, excluding-

(a) the provisions of any section in so far as it-

(i) imposes a duty to pay any fees; or

(ii) grants a right to claim any compensation; and

(b) the penal provisions, shall bind the State.
29 Defects in form

A defect in the form of any document which, in terms of any law, is required to be executed in a particular manner, or in a document issued in terms of this Act, shall, if the document substantially complies with the applicable legal requirements, not render unlawful any administrative act performed in terms of this Act in respect of the matter to which such document relates, and shall not be a ground for exception to any legal procedure which may be taken in respect of such matter.
30 Defrayal of expenses

All expenditure connected with the exercise of any power or performance of any duty granted to or imposed upon the Minister or the director by or under this Act, or which has otherwise been incurred in the administration or application of any provision of this Act, shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be defrayed from moneys appropriated by Parliament for the purpose or, in respect of any such expenditure for the defrayal of which moneys accrue to the department from a utilization of moneys in the Agricultural Research Account referred to in section 2 of the Agricultural Research Account Act, 1964 (Act 37 of 1964), in terms of the provisions of section 3 (2) of the said Act, from such moneys.
(1) The Minister may make regulations-

(a) prescribing the manner in which any controlled animal or thing which is required or permitted to be isolated under this Act by any owner in respect of animals, or by any owner or manager of land on that land, shall be isolated and cared for and treated in isolation;

(b) prescribing the manner in which any infectious or contaminated thing, or anything which can be suspected of being an infected or contaminated thing, shall be cared for, treated, disinfected, destroyed or disposed of by any owner thereof, or by any owner or manager of land on which any such thing is present; (...)
32 Offences and penalties

(1) Any person who-

(a) with the object of introducing or spreading any animal disease or parasite in the Republic, contravenes any provision of section 20, or of a condition of a permit referred to in that section, or fails to comply with any provision of such condition;

(b) (i) with the object of spreading any animal disease or parasite in the Republic, contravenes any provision of section 8 (1) or (3) or section 12 (4) (a); or (...).
33 Presumptions and proof

☐ (1) Whenever in any prosecution for any offence under this Act it would be necessary in order to establish the charge, to prove that-

☐ (a) the accused did or omitted to do anything with the object of bringing into the Republic or of spreading any animal disease or parasite, it shall, on proof that he-

☐ (i) contrary to any provision of this Act or of any condition imposed by virtue thereof, brought any infectious or contaminated thing, or any progeny or product thereof, into the Republic, or removed it from any isolation or detention; or (…)

34 Vicarious liability

(1) Whenever any manager, representative, agent, employee or member of the household of any person (in this section called a principal) does or omits to do any act which it would be an offence under this Act for such principal to do or omit to do, that principal shall be deemed himself to have done or omitted to do that act, and be liable to be convicted and sentenced in respect thereof, unless it is proved that-

(a) in doing or omitting to do that act the manager, representative, agent, employee or member of the household was acting without the connivance or the permission of such principal; and
