Day 1: 12 October 2009

10h00 Registrations
10h30 Opening ceremony
11h00 Welcome speech
11h45 Key note presentation
13h00 Welcome cocktail

Day 2: 13 October 2009

11h20 Pre-clinical sciences
12h00 Discussions
12-14 October 2009

Openings Ceremony

16h05 Coffee break

Day 2: 13 October 2009

SESSION 1: Prevention/control of transboundary diseases, zoonoses and emerging infections
10h00 Impact of new global context on veterinary education
10h30 Transboundary diseases
10h50 Zoonoses and one world one health concept
11h00 HIV/AIDS diseases
11h20 Discussions
11h50 Coffee break

SESSION 2: Basic scientific basis for veterinary education
11h00 Basic science
11h30 Pre-clinical sciences
12h00 Clinical sciences
12h30 Veterinary governance, legislation and organization
13h00 Discussions
13h30 Lunch

SESSION 3: Early detection, notification and surveillance
14h30 Surveillance from the farm to the laboratory
15h00 Participating surveillance
15h30 Surveillance of OIE listed diseases, diseases of wildlife and new outbreaks
16h00 Appropriate legislation for surveillance
16h30 Discussions
17h00 Coffee break

SESSION 4: Veterinary public health and veterinary services concept
17h30 Veterinary public health and training of officials
18h00 Introduction to veterinary public health
18h30 Risk evaluation
19h00 The role of veterinarians in biomedical research
19h30 Discussions
20h00 End of session
Thank you for your attention